The participants should be informed in a transparent manner about the level of protection of their personal data, if this is different from the one where the sending institution is located.

¹ Inter-institutional agreements can be bilateral or multilateral in the case of mobility consortia:

- Bilateral agreements are for cooperation between one higher education institution located in an EU Member State or third country associated to the Programme and another institution located in a third country not associated to the Programme
- Multilateral agreements are for cooperation between a mobility consortium of higher education institutions located in one single EU Member State or third country associated to the Programme and another institution located in a third country not associated to the Programme.

4. Partnership arrangements: fees and organisational support funds

In accordance with the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education, partners commit to charge no additional fees to students:

- In connection with the organisation or administration of their Erasmus+ mobility period. Any violation to this rule by the partners shall be brought to the attention of the National Agency and may lead to the termination of the participation in the project linked to this inter-institutional agreement, if no corrective measures are taken.
- For tuition, registration, examinations or access to laboratory and library facilities. Nevertheless, they may be charged small fees on the same basis as local students for costs such as insurance, student unions and the use of miscellaneous material.

This section is mandatory/applicable only for KA171. Repartition of the granted Organisational Support between the partners is strongly recommended, but not mandatory.

Partners agree on the following use and repartition of organisational support funds including a list of objectives that both partners consider a priority:

5. Outreach and Selection of participants: calendar, application procedure and requirements

- Partners commit to doing outreach to participants with fewer opportunities to encourage their participation in the Programme and, where needed, agree on a common strategy to meet indicative inclusion targets.
- Partners commit to running selection procedures for mobility activities that are fair, transparent and documented, ensuring equal opportunities to participants eligible for mobility. The calls for applications must be public and an appeal procedure must be in place. Under no circumstances, shall applicants and selected participants incur any costs during application and selection procedures.
- In the case of student mobility, partners will ensure that other elements beyond academic merit are taken into account to ensure participation of students with fewer opportunities. Selection criteria and procedures must be clearly communicated in the call for applications.

Applications/Information on nominated students must reach the receiving institution by:

6. Preparation and support

The Higher Education Institution(s) in an EU Member State or associated third country commit(s) to:

- Ensure that students are aware of their rights and obligations as defined in the Erasmus+ Student Charter¹¹.
- Arrange travels or provide a pre-financing of the grant to reduce the costs that participants need to cover upfront, to the extent possible.

All involved Higher Education Institutions commit to the following preparation and support measures. Information and assistance can be provided by the contact points and information sources in the table below:

- The receiving institution will guide incoming mobile participants in finding accommodation, according to the requirements of the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education. It is considered best practice to use the individual grant to pay for the deposit of dormitories.

¹⁰ You may find the implementation guidelines of the Erasmus+ and European Solidarity Corps Inclusion and Diversity Strategy here: https://ec.europa.eu/programmes/erasmus-plus/resources/implementation-guidelines-erasmus-and-european-solidarity-corps-inclusion-and-diversity_en

- Ensure that outgoing mobile participants are well prepared for their activities abroad, including blended mobility, by undertaking activities to achieve the necessary level of linguistic proficiency and develop their intercultural competences.
- Provide assistance related to obtaining visas, when required, for incoming and outgoing mobile participants, according to the requirements of the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education and, if needed, use project funds in the most inclusive way to cover related costs partially or in full.
- Provide assistance related to obtaining insurance, when required, for incoming and outgoing mobile participants, according to the requirements of the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education and use project funds in the most inclusive way to cover related costs partially or in full. The receiving institution will inform mobile participants of cases in which insurance cover is not automatically provided.
- The receiving institution will inform about the existence of relevant infrastructure and provide support to incoming participants with fewer opportunities.
- Provide appropriate mentoring and support arrangements for mobile participants, including for those pursuing blended mobility, as well as integrate incoming mobile participants into the wider student community and in the Institution's everyday life.
- Provide participants with their grant as soon as possible upon arrival, including if necessary a first payment using cash, check or similar to avoid delays linked to opening a bank account.
- The institutions commit to encourage participants to act as ambassadors of the Erasmus+ Programme and share their mobility experience, e.g. by providing information about the existence of Erasmus+ alumni networks, inviting former participants in promotion activities, etc.

7. Recognition

Institutions commit to:

- Ensure recognition for activities satisfactorily completed. (Please specify the recognition tools that will be used, e.g. the European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System.)

The credits are converted on the basis of international credit calculator and follow the guidelines as on the EU website

- Ensure that student and staff mobility for education or training purposes is based on a learning agreement for students and a mobility agreement for staff validated in advance between the sending and receiving Institutions or non-academic organisations and the mobile participants.
- Accept all activities indicated in the learning agreement, or according to the learning outcomes of the modules completed abroad, as automatically counting towards the degree, provided these have been satisfactorily completed by the mobile student.
- Partners commit to taking measures to ensure recognition of student and staff mobility upon their return, including:
 - o Providing incoming mobile students and their sending institutions with free-of-charge transcripts. The documents must be in English or in the language of the sending institution and containing a full, accurate and timely record of the achievements at the end of the mobility period.
 - o A Transcript of Records will be issued by the receiving institution no later than [x] weeks after the assessment period has finished at the receiving HEI. [It should normally not exceed five weeks according to the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education guidelines]
 - o Providing students on traineeships and staff with a certificate for the activities completed. It is recommended to issue a certificate towards the end of the mobility period.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING between

Faculty of Religion and Theology, Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, The Netherlands

and

Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya University, India

In order to promote cooperation between the Faculty of Religion and Theology, Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, the Netherlands ("FRT, VU Amsterdam") and Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya University ("DSVV"), the two institutions agree as follows:-

1. The two institutions will encourage direct contact and co-operation between their faculty and administrative staff, departments and research institutions.
2. Both institutions agree to cooperate in pursuing the following general activities in fields agreed by both Institutions to be mutually acceptable:
 - a. Visits by and exchange of graduate and undergraduate students for study and research.
 - b. Visits by and exchange of staff for research, teaching and discussions.
 - c. Exchange of information including, but not limited to, exchange of library materials and research publications, complying with intellectual property regulations of both Institutes.
 - d. Joint research activities: This covers scholarly research in several forms and more particular PhD research which will be considered in the following way:
 - i. Joint degree PhD research (the PhD student will be guided by supervisors of both institutions and aims to deliver one PhD Thesis for graduation which will take place either at the FRT, VU Amsterdam or DSVV). Upon a successful defense of the thesis, a joint degree will be awarded.)
3. This Memorandum is not intended to create binding or legal obligations for either institution. As and when details of any of the above activities are developed and mutually agreed by the institutions, such details will be set forth in agreements supplemental to this Memorandum.

4. Nothing in this Memorandum shall diminish the full autonomy of either institution, nor should any constraints be imposed by either institution upon the other in carrying out any of the activities contemplated by this Memorandum.
5. Neither Institution is an agent of the other, and neither has any right to act or represent the other, or to purport to do so. This Memorandum does not and shall not be deemed to create any partnership relationship between the institutions.
6. Both institutions understand that all financial arrangements necessary to carry out any of the above activities will have to be negotiated and that the institutions' ability to carry out any of the activities will depend on the availability of funds. This Memorandum places no financial obligations on either institution.
7. If no agreements supplemental to this Memorandum are entered into by the institution for a period of five (5) consecutive years from and including the date of the last signature signed below, this Memorandum will be deemed to have lapsed on the day following that five (5) year period. In all other circumstances, the institutions agree to review this Memorandum five (5) years from the date of the last signature signed below.
8. This Memorandum may be terminated at any time with the mutual consent of both institutions, which termination must be in writing and signed on behalf of both institutions. No amendment of the terms of this MoU will be effective unless made in writing and signed by each institution authorized signatory.
9. This Memorandum may be terminated by one institution giving the non-terminating institution six (6) months' notice in writing of the intention to terminate, provided that such termination will not affect the completion of any activity underway at the time or any previously advertised activity in which commitments to staff or exchange students have been made.
10. All communications must be sent to the address set forth below or to such other address designated by the institutions by written notice. Notices are effective upon receipt.

Zero Project Foundation of the Hague, the Netherlands and Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya (DSVV)

and

The Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya (DSVV), headquartered in Haridwar, India

hereinafter referred to as the "Parties";

Recognizing that the Zero Project Foundation wants to further explore new evidence on the umbrella theme of discovery/invention of the number Zero;

Recognizing that DSVV is academically interested in conducting research on topics related to the said umbrella theme;

Further recognizing that besides Parties, there are other universities and institutions who are currently or in the future interested in participating in the research endeavour;

Believing that such research will further deepen the understanding of the contribution of the number zero in amongst others mathematical, philosophical, linguistical and cultural context;

Desiring therefore to work together and with other universities, academic and research institutions in a multi-disciplinary approach

Agree as follows:

Article /1/: Objective of the Memorandum

The aim of this MOU is to further discuss, explore and establish the principles and guidelines of research projects as outlined in this MOU, both bilaterally between Parties and multilaterally with other institutions. The outcome will be an agreement on the participation of the Parties in the establishment of an Expertise Center on Zero which will foster and develop scientific, academic and research cooperation as well as encouraging student and academic exchange between them on the basis of equality and mutual benefit.

Article /2/: Areas of Cooperation

Parties, within their available resources, will cooperate in the following areas:

- a. joint research projects and publications;
- b. exchange of academic materials and other information;
- c. participation in seminars, conferences, scientific activities and academic meetings;
- d. any other areas mutually agreed upon by the Parties.

Article /3/: Exchange of Publications and Academic Documents

The Parties shall exchange their publications and periodicals under the intellectual property laws and regulations enforced in their respective countries.

Article /4/: Exchange of Support

The Parties shall undertake to support participants in the work programs by providing the information and facilities required for the cooperation and by settling problems related to organizing issues, in accordance with the enforced regulations in both countries.

Article /5/: Establishing the Expertise Center on Zero

The cooperation between Parties will ultimately lead to the establishment of the Expertise Center on Zero, as part of the Zero Project Foundation, but academically governed by the participating universities and institutions.

Article /6/: Dispute Settlement

Any dispute that may arise between the Parties regarding the interpretation or the implementation of this MOU shall be settled amicably by direct consultation and negotiations without involving to any third Party.

- a. This MOU shall enter into force on the date of signing and shall remain in force for a period of one (1) year.
- b. Thereafter, it shall be automatically extended for a further period of one (1) year.
- c. Notwithstanding anything in this Article, either Party may terminate this MOU by notifying the other Party in writing at least three (3) months prior to termination term.
- d. The MOU will also terminate once Parties agree to continue their cooperation as mentioned in Article 5 of this MOU.
- e. The termination of this MOU will not affect any ongoing activities until their completion.
- f. Either Party may amend, change or add any item or article of this MOU by mutual written consent. These amendments, or changes or additions will enter into force according to the same procedure mentioned in paragraph /a/ of this article, and it will be considered as an integrated part of it.
- g. Each Party may nominate a coordinator (or a management committee) for the execution of the MOU within a maximum period of three months from its entry into force.
- h. This MOU does not give any Party the right to be a procurator or a representative of the other Party, and does not either constitute a joint venture partnership or an official business of either of the Parties.

DEV SANSKRITI VISHWAVIDYALAYA (UNIVERSITY), HARIDWAR, INDIA

AND

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST INDIES
AT ST. AUGUSTINE, TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST INDIES, ST. AUGUSTINE CAMPUS

This Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") is made between:

The University of the West Indies, a regional public institution established by Royal Charter on the 2nd day of April 1962, through its St. Augustine Campus in the ward of Tacarigua in the island of Trinidad (hereinafter referred to as "The UWI") represented by its Pro Vice-Chancellor and Campus Principal, Professor Brian Copeland.
and

Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya, located in Haridwar, India. Established in the state of Uttarakhand in India through a special act passed by state legislature and also notified in the gazette on 11th April 2002 (hereinafter referred to as "DSVV") represented by its Pro Vice-Chancellor, Dr Chirmay Pandya.

The UWI and DSVV may hereinafter sometimes be referred to individually as a "Party" or "Institution" and collectively as the "Parties" or "Institutions".

WHEREAS

A. The UWI is a regional university of higher education learning and research, which has been charged with the mission of advancing education and creating knowledge through excellence in teaching, research, innovation, public service, intellectual leadership and outreach in order to support the inclusive (social, economic, political, cultural and environmental) development of the Caribbean region and beyond.

B. The UWI has its Centre Headquarters in Kingston, Jamaica and operates from the following Campuses: the Mona Campus situated at Mona in Kingston, Jamaica; the Cave Hill Campus situated at Cave Hill in Barbados; the St. Augustine Campus situated at St. Augustine and Debe in Trinidad and Tobago; the Five Islands Campus situated at St. John's in Antigua and Barbuda and the Open Campus which serves seventeen countries within the Caribbean region inclusive of the four aforementioned territories.

C. Whereas, DSVV is based on the teachings and vision of Pt. Shriram Sharma Acharya Ji, who was one of the ground-breaking Indian scholars of recent times. His education philosophy was to provide a free education to the deserving students with the contribution of the society and in turn, the qualified students should return the learnt skills back to the society in the form of a mandatory social internship. DSVV is working towards holistic education through its fully residential campus in Haridwar.

D. The Parties are desirous of collaborating across a range of projects, including but not limited to student / staff exchanges, research activities, joint seminars, conferences etc.

E. The Parties intend that to these ends the provisions of this MOU shall reflect the understandings and arrangements between the Parties and shall be carried out in a spirit of good faith and goodwill.

NOW THIS MEMORANDUM WITNESSETH as follows:

1. SCOPE

1.1 The Parties wish to engage in cooperative programmes of education and research, and promote exchange among their faculty and students. Accordingly, the area of cooperation shall include, subject to mutual consent, any activity or programme at either Institution as considered desirable and feasible on either side to foster and develop the cooperative relationship between the two Institutions.

1.2 The cooperation between both Institutions will include teaching, research, exchange of faculty and students, staff development, etc., as deemed beneficial by the two Institutions.

2. AREAS OF COLLABORATION

2.1 The collaboration shall be carried out, subject to availability of funds and resources and the approval of each Institution, through such programmes or activities as:

- a) Joint research activities
- b) Exchange of Students (including research students)
- c) Exchange of Faculty and staff
- d) Joint teaching or supervision of students
- e) Staging of joint seminars, conferences and academic meetings

- f) Special academic programmes
- g) Education Abroad on the part of undergraduate and graduate students, including exchanges, internships, electives and practicum.
- h) Exchange of academic materials and other information where possible.
- i) Collaborative academic programmes which may involve cultural activities and a strong field visit component. These may be for groups or for individuals on Independent Guided Study Programmes
- j) Joint collaborative Grant Proposals

2.2 The terms of such collaboration and the necessary budget for each programme and activity shall be mutually discussed and agreed upon in writing by both Parties prior to the initiation of the particular programme or activity, and such programmes and activities shall be negotiated on a mutual basis. Each Institution will designate a coordinator to develop and implement specific activities or programmes.

2.3 Each mutually identified and agreed activity, shall be covered by a separate agreement signed by both Parties; reference to this MOU shall be included.

The separate agreement shall specify the implementation provisions for each activity and indicate the financial arrangements to apply.

2.4 This MOU will not be construed to obligate any particular expenditure or commitment of resources or personnel.

3. PRINCIPLES OF COOPERATION

3.1 Implementation of this MOU will be in accordance with the Regulations and Policies of both Institutions.

3.2 The activities envisaged under this MOU will be carried out by the department of History of The UWI and by the office of the Pro Vice Chancellor of DSVV or through any other affiliated organization or nominee, mutually approved by the respective Parties.

3.3 The UWI and DSVV will each accept the participants selected by the other if mutually acceptable academic and/or professional qualifications and standards are met. The host Institution will be responsible for making the final decision on the formal acceptance of participants in any exchange programme under this MOU.

3.4 All participants will be treated in the same non-discriminatory manner in carrying out the provisions of this MOU, subject to the provisions of the Regulations, Policies and requirements of each Institution.

3.5 Any violation of these principles will be considered grounds for terminating the MOU.

4. CONFIDENTIALITY

Each Institution will protect the confidentiality of documents, information or data received from the other Institution as well as any other instrument concluded under this MOU. Any information disclosed by either Party to the other shall be treated as confidential information and shall be disclosed to only those individuals duly authorised by either Party to have access to such confidential information; unless such information is or becomes publicly available through no fault of the other or is disclosed pursuant to a legal or regulatory or reporting obligation to do so. Each Party's confidential information shall be held in strict confidence by the other Party using the same standard of care as it uses to protect its own confidential information and shall not be used or disclosed by the other Party for any purpose except as necessary to implement or perform the terms of this MOU. The obligations of confidentiality shall survive the termination of this MOU and the Parties agree to return any document that contains or reflect confidential information upon request from the other.

5. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

5.1 Materials and Data such as publications, software and designs owned by any Party may only be used with the consent of the other and for the sole purpose of carrying out an activity/activities under and for the duration this MOU.

5.2 Notwithstanding Clause 5.1, it is expressly agreed that the Intellectual Property rights shall remain with the originating Institution and that no Party transfers by operation of this MOU to the other Party any right in or license to any patents, copyright of materials such as publications, software and designs or other proprietary right owned as of the commencement of this MOU or arising outside of the research conducted under this MOU.

5.3 Copyright as well as rights to any other intellectual property developed jointly by The UWI and DSVV under this MOU shall be vested in both Institutions. Each Institution shall have full rights to exploit such jointly-owned works for non-commercial purposes, unless otherwise specified by the Parties or formalized by a separate agreement between the Parties.

6. RESTRICTIONS ON USE OF NAME, ETC.

Both Parties agree to refrain from using any name, emblem, logo, trademark or other sign associated with the other Party without first obtaining the written permission of that other Party to do so. Further, this MOU does not grant either Institution the right to use the other Institution's trademarks, tradenames or service marks.

7. PUBLICATION

7.1 In case the Parties wish to publish the results or output of any works or research arising under this MOU, they will both establish the conditions of the publication by mutual consent.

7.2 The Parties agree to provide each Party with a copy of the manuscript or abstract at least thirty (30) days prior to submission for publication in order to allow either Party an opportunity to protect any Confidential Information or Intellectual Property that might be disclosed by the manuscript or abstract. Any objection to the planned publication shall be made in writing within 30 calendar days after receipt of the notice. If no objection or consent is given within the time limit stated above, the publication will be considered to have been authorised.

7.3 The Party publishing the material obtained or developed from research and/or scholarly activities pursuant to the MOU shall acknowledge the contributions of the other Party to the MOU unless such acknowledgement is not desired by the other Party.

7.4 The Parties may contemplate to have a joint publication of the material obtained or developed from research and/or scholarly activities pursuant to the MOU. Appropriate acknowledgement will be made for the contributions of each Party.

7.5 Publication means the publication of an abstract, article or paper in an academic journal or other publication, including, but not limited to an electronic repository, print or digital media, social media platforms or its presentation at a conference or seminar; under this MOU, "to Publish" and "Publication" are to be construed as references to Academic Publication.

8. EFFECTIVE DATE AND LENGTH OF AGREEMENT

8.1 This MOU shall take effect from the date of the signature last affixed ("Effective Date") by the duly authorized representatives of the Parties to this MOU.

8.2 This MOU will remain in force for a period of five (5) years from the Effective Date and subject to the availability of resources. After the initial five (5) year period, this MOU may be reviewed and renewed by mutual consent every three (3) years.

8.2 Either Party reserves the right to terminate this MOU upon six months' prior written notice to the other. The Parties agree to make best efforts to finalize common projects and activities under this MOU prior to the effective date of termination.

9. REVIEW AND AMENDMENTS:

SHARAD FARDHY
Vice Chancellor

This MOU will be subject to periodic review and modification, as mutually agreed by the Parties. The Parties may modify or amend this MOU by mutual agreement in writing. A Party wishing to make a proposal for modification or amendment of the terms of this MOU shall do so in writing to the other Party no less than one (1) month prior to the effective date proposed for such modification or amendment. No modifications or amendments shall take effect unless duly agreed and signed by duly authorized representatives of the Parties.

10. FORCE MAJEURE

No party shall be considered to be in default or in breach of its obligations under this MOU if the performance of such obligations is prevented by any circumstances of Force Majeure which arises after the MOU becomes effective. The term "Force Majeure" as employed herein means an event which is beyond the reasonable control of a Party and which prevents or significantly impairs a Party's performance of its obligations hereunder impossible or reasonably to be considered impossible in the circumstances or so impractical, and includes but is not limited to, war (whether declared or not), riots, civil disorder, epidemic, pandemic, quarantine, earthquake, fire, explosion, storm, flood or other adverse weather conditions, strikes, lockouts, or other industrial action (except where such strikes, lockouts or other industrial action are within the power of the party invoking Force Majeure to prevent), confiscation or any other action or authority by governmental or regulatory agencies or Acts of God. Any excuse from liability as a result of a Force Majeure event shall be effective only to the extent and duration of the event causing the failure or delay in performance and provided that the party relying on such excuse has not caused such event to occur and continues to use diligent, good faith efforts to avoid the effects of such event and to perform its obligations as reasonably practicable.

11. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

In case any dispute or difference shall arise between the institutions hereto touching or relating to any matter arising under this MOU, the institutions shall meet and attempt in good faith to resolve any such dispute or difference promptly through amicable negotiations. The institutions agree to use best efforts to utilize generally accepted alternative dispute resolution processes and procedures to resolve disputes and promote the spirit and intent of this MOU.

12. GOVERNING LAW

This MOU shall be construed, governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago and the laws of Republic of India. The Parties shall comply with all such laws in the performance of the obligations contained hereunder.

We are also hosting the Asia's first center for Baltic Culture and Studies.

Whereas, RILM has approached DSVV to partner to promote adult literacy to bring "Total Literacy in India".

The RILM and DSVV (hereinafter referred to as Parties) have together decided to enter into a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with the following scope of collaboration:

1. Scope of collaboration

The Parties have mutually agreed to cooperate to promote adult literacy in India so that India becomes totally literate. The Scope of collaboration includes the following:

- a. Collaboration for creating awareness about importance of adult literacy
- b. Collaboration for improving adult literacy rate by making adult non-literate literate
- c. Collaboration for conducting basic literacy assessment examination through district administration
- d. Collaboration for visibility platforms
- e. Collaboration for knowledge sharing
- f. Collaboration for anything that is not mentioned but would be required for the successful implementation of the activities mentioned in this MoU

2. Roles and Responsibilities

2.1 Role and responsibilities of RILM

The role of RILM in various activities proposed to be taken up under this MoU shall primarily be that of a facilitator. The role of RILM shall include the following activities:

g/m/w.

SHARAD PARDHY
Vice Chancellor
Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya
Gayatrikunj, Shantikunj,
Haridwar 249411

- a. To provide the required campaigning material to create awareness for adult literacy.
- b. To facilitate availability of adult literacy kits to make adult non-literates literate.
- c. To impart training to Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya – Shantikunj volunteers so that they implement the project efficiently.
- d. To facilitate conducting NIOS examination of basic literacy for adult non-literates through district administration.
- e. To keep the adult literacy portal functional so that proper documentation is ensured.
- f. To provide the visibility platforms for activities undertaken by DSVV under this MoU.
- g. All other necessary initiatives will be taken by RILM to make this a successful program.

2.2 Roles and responsibilities of DSVV

- a. To motivate its volunteers to take initiative for implementation of the project in their respective areas.
- b. To draw a roadmap to reach-out to the maximum number of adult non-literates in and around their centres, in consultation with RILM.
- c. To provide visibility at possible platforms for RILM related activities.

3. Impact assessment evaluation

The activities undertaken as part of the MoU shall be subjected to impact assessment evaluation as mutually agreeable to both the Parties.

4. Financial Obligations

- a. Either party would deliver their responsibility with their own resources without any financial contribution from other party.

5. Reviews

- a. The progress of implementation of the programme undertaken under this MoU shall be jointly reviewed by both the Parties at regular intervals as mutually decided.
- b. Based on the reviews, if required, revised implementation plan would be formulated.
- c. This MoU shall be effective for a period of 3 (three) years or such period as may be mutually agreed between the Parties.

6. Limitation of Liability

In no event shall either party be liable to the other for any incidental, special, exemplary, consequential or punitive damages based on any theory of contract, tort, strict liability, negligence, equitable principle or otherwise, even if such party has been advised of, or should have known of, the possibility of such damages.

7. Termination

The Parties mentioned in the MoU will be at liberty to terminate the MoU with at least two month's advance notice in special circumstances to be explained in writing to the other party. Without prejudice to the foregoing, steps shall be taken to ensure that the termination of this MoU

SHARAD FARDHY
Vice Chancellor,
Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya
Gayatrikunj, Shantikunj,
Haridwar 249411

will not compromise or discriminate against any of the activities or programmes undertaken within the framework of this MoU.

8. Settlement of Disputes

Both the parties understand and mutually agree that in no situation, any dispute or conflict would be taken up to the court of law but would be resolved through discussion and mutual understanding. In case of escalation in the dispute and if one or both parties fail to reach to a mutually acceptable situation, they can mutually choose to dormant or dissolve the prevailing MOU.

Any modification or change to this MoU shall only be in writing signed by the authorized representatives of the parties to this MoU, to be binding on the parties hereto.

In witness hereof, of Parties hereto have signed this MoU, in two original copies, on 7th August of 2021 at Dev Sanskriti Vishwavidyalaya - Shantikunj.

Added value of the mobility (in the context of the modernisation and internationalisation strategies of the institutions involved): Developing the cooperation and exchanges between the two institutions, planning of future collaborations in terms of mobilities and art events. Professional development.
Activities to be carried out: Visit of the departments of UAD; Meeting the staff of different offices at UAD; Job shadowing and discussions on the administrative process at Erasmus+ Office; Offering support for the staff of the Erasmus+ Office for the daily activities ; Visits of art institutions, cultural sites and other local institutions involved in the activities of the Erasmus+ Office.
Expected outcomes and impact (e.g. on the professional development of the staff member and on both institutions): <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Planning future collaborations in order to organize cultural events, mobilities or other related activities.- A better knowledge of the Romanian system of work in programming, planning and organizing the activities within the framework of the Erasmus+ projects;- An improved knowledge of the Romanian contemporary art scene.

II. COMMITMENT OF THE THREE PARTIES

By signing⁷ this document, the staff member, the sending institution and the receiving institution/enterprise confirm that they approve the proposed mobility agreement.

The sending higher education institution supports the staff mobility as part of its modernisation and internationalisation strategy and will recognise it as a component in any evaluation or assessment of the staff member.

The staff member will share his/her experience, in particular its impact on his/her professional development and on the sending higher education institution, as a source of inspiration to others.

The staff member and the beneficiary institution commit to the requirements set out in the grant agreement signed between them.

- In case the mobility combines teaching and training activities, the mobility agreement for teaching template should be used and adjusted to fit both activity types.
- In the case of mobility between Programme and Partner Countries, this agreement must be always signed by the staff member, the Programme Country HEI as beneficiary and the Partner Country HEI as sending or receiving organisation. In case of mobility from Partner Country HEIs to Programme Country enterprises the last box should be duplicated to include the signature of the Programme Country HEI (the beneficiary) and the receiving organisation (four signatures in total).

² Seniority: Junior (approx. < 10 years of experience), Intermediate (approx. > 10 and < 20 years of experience) or Senior (approx. > 20 years of experience).

³ Nationality: Country to which the person belongs administratively and that issues the ID card and/or passport.

⁴ Erasmus Code: A unique identifier that every higher education institution that has been awarded with the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education receives. It is only applicable to higher education institutions located in Programme Countries.

⁵ Country code: ISO 3166-2 country codes available at: <https://www.iso.org/obp/ui/#search>.

⁶ Any Programme Country enterprise or, more generally, any public or private organisation active in the labour market or in the fields of education, training and youth (training of staff members from Programme Country HEIs in Partner Country non-academic partners is not eligible).

⁷ Circulating papers with original signatures is not compulsory. Scanned copies of signatures or electronic signatures may be accepted, depending on the national legislation of the country of the sending institution (in the case of mobility with Partner Countries: the national legislation of the Programme Country). Certificates of attendance can be provided electronically or through any other means accessible to the staff member and the sending institution.
